

CONSTITUTION OF EGBE BOBASEYE OKUNRIN (ASIWAJU), IMOTA

Motto: Love & Unity

10, Maja Street, Imota, Lagos State.

Tel.: 0803-720-0237; 0807-800-2937; E-mail:bobaseye2024@yahoo.com

SECTION 1:

- a) Name: The Egbe (Age-group) shall be known and addressed as EGBE BOBASEYE OKUNRIN (ASIWAJU), IMOTA.
- b) Registered Office: The registered office of the Egbe shall be situated in Imota, Lagos State.
- c) Motto: The motto of the Club shall be "LOVE and UNITY"

SECTION 2: Supremacy of the Constitution - This constitution and its provisions shall have binding effect on all matters of the Egbe. There shall be Bye-Laws, Standing Orders, rules and regulations made for the smooth running of the Egbe and any Bye-Laws, Standing Orders, directives or rules and regulations which are inconsistent or runs contrary to the provisions of this Constitution shall, to the extent of their inconsistency, be null and void and of no effect

SECTION 3 - Aims and Objectives:

- a) To foster unity, mutual understanding and facilitate social, business and professional interactions among members;
- b) To enhance the socio-economic development and welfare of members;
- c) To contribute to the infrastructural and manpower development in Imota;
- d) To do such other things as are conducive and incidental to the aforementioned objectives.

SECTION 4: SUPREME AUTHORITY - The supreme authority of the Egbe shall be exercised by the General Meeting.

SECTION 5: MEMBERSHIP - Membership of the Egbe is open to indigenes of Imota and its environs of any religion. Such intending member must be:-

- a) Born between the year 1979 and 1977,
- b) Financially buoyant and ready to participate and support the aims, objectives, and programs of the Egbe.
- c) Ready to abide by this constitution and other rules and regulations guiding the Egbe.
- d) Be a man of integrity, good character and morally upright.
- e) Obtain membership application form after payment of a particular fee which shall be fixed by the Membership Screening Committee.
- f) Attend a screening interview session with the Membership Screening Committee.
- g) Be issued a letter of acceptance signed by the President and the Secretary

SECTION 6: LOSS OF MEMBERSHIP - A member of the Club shall lose his membership:-

- a) In the event of death or insanity;
- b) If he resigns voluntarily;
- c) If he is convicted of a criminal offence;
- d) If he behaves in a way that brings the Egbe to disrepute;
- e) Misappropriates the fund of the Egbe. In case of sub-section b-e above, such member shall be suspended from meetings and other activities of the Egbe and summoned to face the Disciplinary Committee which shall make recommendation(s) as to whether or not such member should be dismissed. Such recommendation(s) shall be supported by at least two third majority of members at a General Meeting.

SECTION 7: RE - ADMISSION - This shall only occur in case of voluntary resignation of membership. Such person shall on application be re-admitted and shall fulfill all the provisions laid down in this constitution.

SECTION 8:

- a) THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL:- The Executive Council shall consist of the Giwa Egbe (President), Akowe Egbe (Secretary), Akapo Egbe (Treasurer), Alukoro Egbe (Public Relations Officer), Director of Socials and Provost.
- b) All officers shall be elected at the General Meeting and shall hold office for 3 years after which he shall not be eligible to be re-elected.

SECTION 9: DUTIES AND POWERS OF OFFICERS -

a) GIWA EGBE (PRESIDENT):-

- He shall preside over all the meetings and other similar gatherings of the Egbe.
- He shall have the power to summon emergency meetings.
- He shall be responsible for coordinating the activities of the executives.
- He shall have the power to assign duties to any member(s) of the Egbe.
- He shall have the veto power in the event of a tie during deliberations
- He shall have the power to act on behalf of the Egbe particularly where the members are not available; provided that such an action shall be in the interest of the Egbe.

b) AKOWE EGBE (SECRETARY): He shall;

- Record minutes of both general and executive meetings.
- Generally be responsible for all correspondence.
- Take record of the properties of the Egbe, other asset as well as liabilities.
- Keep custody of register, books and other document(s) of the Egbe.
- Give an annual report of all activities of the Egbe.
- Keep custody of the seal.

c) AKAPO EGBE (TREASURER): He shall;

- Receive all monies paid to the Egbe and make lodgment of same into the Bank Account of the Egbe within two working days of receipt.
- Maintain / keep a cash book and any other book of accounting of the Egbe.
- Be a signatory to all withdrawals from Bank Account of the Egbe.
- give financial reports to the General Meeting

d) ALUKORO EGBE (PUBLIC RELATIONS OFFICER): He shall;

- Publicize all activities of the Egbe with the approval of the General Meeting.
- Ensure that notices of executive, emergency and general meetings will be circulated and publized.
- Make releases with a view of correcting any erroneous impression held by any body or group against the Egbe or any member of the Egbe.

e) PROVOST: He shall;

- Maintain law and order during the meeting.
- Collect fine(s) from members that exhibit any act of indiscipline, to wit noise making, use of indecent, indecorous or gutter language or any manner of unruly behaviour whatsoever.
- Collect fine from any member not appropriately dressed.

f) THE DIRECTOR OF SOCIALS: He shall;

- Be the Chairman of any entertainment committee, which may be set up.
- Co-ordinate the general arrangement in respect to all social activities

SECTION 10: COMMITTEES -

The following committees shall be set up by the Executive Councils and shall be dissolved every two years.

- a) Peace Committee - They have the duty to settle any dispute that may be brought to them within the Egbe and any judgment they give shall be binding, provided it is free from bias and prejudice.
- b) Investment Committee: - Shall be set up by the executive to fashion out appropriate Investment and Fund management plans for the mutual benefit of members.
- c) Audit Committee: Shall be responsible for annual auditing and presentation of annual auditing report to the Egbe.
- d) Finance Committee:
- e) Membership Screening Committee: Shall be responsible for the screening and admission of new members.
- f) Disciplinary Committee:

SECTION 11

- a) Bank Account: The Egbe shall operate Bank Account(s) with three signatories namely: Giwa Egbe (President), Akowe Egbe (Secretary) and Akapo Egbe (Treasurer).

- b) Incomes of the Egbe: The Egbe shall derive its income from the following sources:
- Membership annual due
 - Monthly due.
 - Donation / levy.
 - Absenteeism fee
 - Membership Application Form / Sales of constitution.
 - Late coming fine
 - Investment and interest.

SECTION 12: ELECTIONS -

- a) General election shall hold every 3 years to elect members of the executive council.
- b) There shall be appointment of a returning officer, who shall be responsible for conducting any particular election. The said officer, may in turn, appoint two members to assist him by way of counting and recording of votes in the election.
- c) For each office there shall be nominations and each voting at any election shall be by secret ballot.
- d) There shall be a separate and distinct election / voting for each of the offices that constitute the executive council.
- e) For every election, any contestant who wins the simple majority of the votes cast shall be deemed the winner.
- f) Every member shall have right to vote or to be voted for.

SECTION 13: VOTE OF NO CONFIDENCE ON AND VOLUNTARY RESIGNATION ON THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL.

- a) The executive council shall be removed before the expiration of its term if a vote of no confidence is passed on it by two / third of the members present and voting provided they form a quorum.
- b) In the same token, a member of the executive council shall be removed before the expiration of his term of office if a vote of no confidence is passed on him by two / third of the members present and voting provided they form a quorum.
- c) A member of the executive council can, in a letter addressed through the office of the Akowe (Secretary), voluntarily resign the said membership provided that the ground for the said resignation is genuine and cogent, and no property or asset of the Egbe is still in his custody

SECTION 14: AMENDMENTS - This Constitution shall be amended or reviewed in part or whole by 2/3 majority of the active voting members at a General Meeting the members provided that. Any amendments sought shall be by motion which must be supported by three members. A constitution review committee shall be set up to amend the constitution.

SECTION 15: STANDING ORDERS

- a) The quorum for meeting shall be two-third of all members of the Egbe while the executive shall be four members.
- b) The Executive Committee shall have power to set up committee on ad hoc basis.
- c) The Egbe shall organize an end of the year party at any convenient year.
- d) Any member who fights, misbehaves or vomited as result of excessive eating or drinking shall be suspended for two months and also a fine in the sum of N 10,000 as fine and a letter of apology.

SECTION 16: THE COMMON SEAL - The Egbe shall have a common seal. Such seal shall be kept in the custody of the Akowe Egbe (Secretary) who shall produce it when requires for use by the Egbe. All documents to be executed by the Executive Council Members shall be signed by each of them and sealed with common seal.

Dated this.....day of2008